REED AGAIN CHOSEN AS THE SPEAKER

NOMINATED BY THE REPUBLICAN CAUCUSES.

The Fifty-fourth Congress Assembled at Noon Today—President's Message to be Read Tomorrow—Program For the Week—Other Men Chosen for the Various Offices.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The first week of the LIVth congress, which convenes at noon to-day, promises nothing at either end of the capitol in the way of actual legislation. The time before the Christmas holidays is usually devoted to preliminary matters, and the work of the session does not begin until after the recess. The new congress will probably not be an exception to this rule. The senate proceedings may be enlivened by an attempt at reorganization, but in the house nothing can be done until the committees are appointed. Speaker-elect Reed says that the committees will not be announced this week, with, perhaps, a single exception—the committee on rules. This committee formulates the rules which are to govern the house during the session, and it is customary for the speaker to name it during the first week in order that it can immediately begin its labors. While it is believed that the rules of the LIst congress, over which Mr. Reed presided, will be reported for the guidance of the present house, it is understood that a few changes will be made as a result of experience which are designed to still further improve the house machinery and the facilitation of public business.

To-day Mr. Kerr, clerk of the last house, will call the house to order. After the roll call the election of the officers nominated by the Republican caucus on Saturday night will occur and as soon as Mr. Reed is formally installed as speaker, the drawing of seats, which is known as the congressional "raffle," will follow. This is a somewhat tedious but amusing affair and will occupy the remainder of the afternoon. The reading of the president's message will consume Tuesday and at its conclusion the house will probably adjourn until Thursday, and on convening Thursday adjourn immediately to Monday. These adjournments will continue, probably, until the committees are announced. This is the program, but the unexpected might occur, as it so often does in the house, if some aspiring member should introduce a sensational resolution and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Republican caucus Saturday night named Mr. Reed for speaker and the following officers:

Clerk, Alexander McDowell of Pennsylvania.

Sergeant-at-arms, Benjamin F. Russell of Missouri.

Doorkeeper, William J. Glenn of New York.

Postmaster, Joseph C. McElroy of Ohio.

Chaplain, the Rev. H. N. Couden of Michigan.

The Hon. Galusha A. Grow, who was speaker of the house in 1859, nominated Mr. Reed in the caucus. He simply presented Mr. Reed's name and the nomination was made by a rising vote and amid cheers. Mr. Grow, Mr. Cannon and Mr. Payne escorted Mr. Reed to the hall, and when the cheering which greeted his appearance had subsided he made a brief speech of acceptance.

When Mr. Reed had finished his speech Mr. Foss of Illinois and Mr. Hilborn of California each presented him with a gavel. These he accepted with appropriate remarks, in the course of which he alluded to the fact that he had spent some years on the Pacific coast as a young man. In closing his remarks Mr. Reed said: "To all the audience I must add that I cannot undertake to reconcile the differences of these gentlemen as to their metallic views."

Previous to Mr. Reed's nomination the caucus had organized by electing Mr. Grosvenor of Ohio chairman of the caucus by a vote of 158 to 74 for Mr. Henderson of Iowa. Mr. Ellis of Oregon was elected secretary by a vote of 139 to 77 for Mr. Hooker of New York. Mr. Grosvenor's election was a victory for what was known as the McDowell combination on house officers, and foreshadowed the success of the "combine" ticket.

In view of the fact that the message will not be received until Tuesday the proceedings of Monday in the senate will consist in the swearing in of the newly elected members who may be present and the appointment of a committee to wait upon the president. The session will probably not continue beyond 1 o'clock, when the Republicans will meet in caucus. The message will be read on Tuesday forenoon. The brief sessions of Wednesday and Thursday will be devoted largely to the introduction of bills, of which there will be several hundred. Following precedents, the senate will adjourn on Thursday until the following Monday. One or two brief executive sessions for the reference of nominations are also among the probabilities for the week.

If the Republicans decide upon an effort to reorganize, as is now generally conceded, the Democrats will follow with a conference on Tuesday or Wednesday, at which they probably will decide upon a course of action. It now appears probable that all three parties will place candidates for president pro tem. in the field, and in that event the week will be enlivened somewhat by a triangular contest for this and the other offices of the senate.

A call has been issued for a meeting of silver senators to be held in the marble room at 11 o'clock today for the purpose of discussing the feasibility of organizing the senate on a silver basis. It is signed by four Populist senators and has been sent to all the Republican and silver senators who have professed allegiance to the silver cause.

HEADS OF COMMITTEES.

Important Chairmanships That Have Been Definitely Decided Upon.

Washington, Dec. 2.—It is rumored that Representative Dingley of Maine is to be chairman of the committee on ways and means and leader of the house of representatives. Mr. Reed, who has been very secretive as to his intentions in regard to committee appointments, allowed this information to get out finally. It is of the highest importance, as indicating that the new speaker does not intend to be influenced so much by seniority of service in making up the committees as by the fitness of men for the places he has to fill.

Other important chairmanships that are understood to have been definitely decided up by Mr. Reed are:

Mr. Hitt of Illinois, committee on foreign affairs.

Mr. Hepburn of Iowa, committee on interstate and foreign commerce.

Mr. Bingham of Pennsylvania, committee on postoffices and post roads.

Mr. Boutelle of Maine, committee on naval affairs.

Mr. Milliken of Maine, committee on public buildings and grounds.

Mr. Hermann of Oregon, committee on rivers and harbors.

Mr. Daniels of New York, committee on elections.

Mr. Harmer of Pennsylvania, committee on the District of Columbia.

LATE COTTON KILLED.

Cold Weather of Last Week Hurt the Texas Crop.

Galveston, Tex., Dec. 2.—The weekly weather and crop bulletin issued by the Texas weather service and the United States weather bureau jointly states that the weather during the past week was very unfavorable for late cotton. All cotton yet alive has been killed, and with the opening and picking of the mature bolls, the crop will be gathered. Cotton picking is completed in most localities. The corn crop is virtually saved, and the yield was very large. The rains were of great benefit to early sown wheat and oats. Wheat sowing is nearing completion. The weather on the morning of the 25th killed all tender vegetation and small fruit, where not protected, except along the coast line.

Sensational Rumor Discredited.

London, Dec. 2.—The story that a British warship has been fired upon in the Dardanelles is merely a rumor, and there is no confirmation for it whatever. Beyond a dispatch to the Observer nothing is known here regarding the alleged firing and it is the consensus of opinion that the report is unfounded. Any such action on the part of the commanders of the Turkish forts is thought to be exceedingly improbable.

TOWN TALES OF THE DAY.

We advertised in Saturday evening's Gazette a sale of men's frieze ulsters sent us by Browning, King & Co., of Minneapolis. They were made to sell at $18, $20, $22 and some for $25. Heavy cassimere linings, some with silk shoulders. Every one a bargain. Our price while they last $15 for your choice. T. J. Zeigler.

Count the cost. Any store can sell excellent shoes if cost cuts no figure. Fix the standard and some people will reach it for a certain sum. Some will do it for less, and then again there are others who can do it for still less. We claim a place in this class of shoe stores. Economics through methods do the business. We've studied them for your benefit. Brown Bros. & Lincoln.

Greatest bargains offered in suits; only $5 00 for any suit or overcoat in the house. Dress up for the least money you ever spent. Sold ten suits this morning before 9 o'clock and four overcoats. Come in and get a suit. If it does not suit after you have worn it Sunday come in and get your money. F. S. Winslow.

Cold Weather

Is a tester for shoes. It requires a well made, well put up foot article to stand rough weather such as we are having now. The famous Marzluff shoes for ladies stands the racket well. It is made by people who understand shoes We save you $2 a pair on them. Lowell's Annex

No Time for Colds.

COMPTROLLER GIVES FIGURES ON BANKS

JAMES H. ECKLES SUBMITS HIS REPORT.

Condition of the Financial Institutions of the Country Reviewed in Detail. Suggestion for Amendments to Laws—The New Institutions That Were Organized.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The report of James H. Eckels, comptroller of the currency, was submitted to congress today. The total number of national banks organized since the date the first certificate of authority was issued, June 20, 1863, to the close of the report year, has been 5,023, making a yearly average of 152. Of the number organized, there were in active operation on Oct. 31 last 3,715, with an authorized capital stock of $664,136,915, or an average capital stock of $178,772 for each bank. The total amount of their circulation outstanding was $213,887,630, of which amount $190,180,961 was secured by United States bonds, and $23,706,669 by lawful money deposited with the treasurer of the United States.

During the report year forty-three banks were organized, located in twenty different states, with an aggregate capital stock of $4,890,000. Of these new banks twenty-eight, with a capital stock of $2,530,000, are in the northern and northwestern section of the country, and fifteen, with a capital stock aggregating $2,360,000, in the south and southwest. The number of banks organized during the year was less than 30 per cent of the yearly average. There was a net increase during the year of $10,779,597 in the amount of circulation secured by bonds and a gross increase of $6,322,540 in the total circulation.

On Sept. 28, 1895, the date of the last report of condition of the 3,712 banks then reporting, their total resources were $3,423,629,343.63, of which $2,059,408,402.27 represented their loans and discounts and $356,577,580.61 money of all kinds in bank. Of their liabilities $1,701,653,621.28 represented individual deposits, $336,888,350.86 surplus and net undivided profits and $182,481,610.50 outstanding circulation secured by bonds.

Of the 3,715 banks in active operation 2,901 with a capital stock of $536,725,832 are in the northern and northeastern half of the country, and 814, with a capital stock of $126,848,950 in the south and southwest. There are 2,611 national banks located east of the Mississippi river, with a capital stock of $527,612,792, and 1,104 west of the Mississippi, with a capital stock of $135,961,990. The corporate existence of seventy-one national banks in sixteen states, with a capital stock of $10,662, and a total circulation of $3,226,275, has been extended during the year.

Receivers for thirty-six banks have been appointed during the year. The aggregate capital stock of these banks was $5,235,020, and their circulation $1,003,402. During the year 101 dividends were paid, amounting to $3,380,552.65.

The following amendments to the law are recommended:

1. That the comptroller, with the approval of the secretary of the treasury, be empowered in all proper cases to remove officers and directors of national banks for violations of law and mismanagement, first according them a hearing on charges preferred.

2. That the loans of any bank to its executive officers and employes be restricted and made only upon the approval of the board of directors, a separate written record thereof being kept.

3. That the assistant cashier, in the absence of the cashier, be authorized to sign the circulating notes of the bank and reports of condition.

4. That some class of public officers be empowered to administer the general oaths required by the national bank act.

5. That bank examiners be required to take an oath and execute a bond before entering upon the discharge of their duties.

6. That upon a day in each year, to be designated by the comptroller, the directors of national banks shall be required to make an examination of the affairs of the banks and submit to the comptroller a report thereon upon the blanks to be furnished for such purpose.

7. That the comptroller be authorized to issue to national banking associations circulating notes to the par value of the bonds deposited by them with the treasurer of the United States to secure such notes.

8. That the semi-annual tax levied on account of the circulating notes of national banks be reduced so as to equal but one-fourth of 1 per cent per annum.

Pennsylvania Railroad Fatalities.

Harrisburg, Pa., Dec. 2.—The returns to the department of internal affairs of the steam railroads operating in Pennsylvania show that 1,538 were killed and 10,605 injured by them during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1895. Of those killed, twenty-nine were passengers, 447 employes and 1,107 other persons. The passengers injured numbered 612, employes 8,346 other persons 1,649.

Bishop Wayman Dead.

Baltimore, Dec. 2.—Bishop A. W. Wayman, senior bishop of the African Methodist church, died of paralysis Saturday at his home in this city.

REBELLION BEGINS ACROSS THE WATER

HOLY CITY OF MECCA IS THREATENED.

Another Complication Added to the Turkish Embroglio—Forts on the Dardanelles Fire on a British Ship Powers Not in Accord—Union Jack No Longer Impress Respect.

London, Dec. 2.—A letter from Aden, Arabia, dated Nov. 20, gives details of the Arabian revolt against the sultan in Yemen, the coffee-growing district of southwestern Arabia. The importance of the outbreak lies in its proximity to Mecca. The loss to the sultan of the Mussulman holy city would probably mean his deposition, hence the strenuous official denials which have been made of the existence of the rebellion.

So far the revolt has been confined to the district around Kharmar, two days' journey from Saana, the capital of Yemen. The rebels number 45,000 Arabs, armed with Martini and Snyder rifles, and led by Sayyid, a pretender to the Imanship of the whole Yemen country, who wields a great influence and surreptitiously collects tribute or taxes from all Arabs under Turkish rule.

Six thousand Turkish troops recently arrived at Saana from Constantinople and were distributed among the garrisons in the Kharmar district. The rebels had already captured, after severe fighting and great bloodshed, two Turkish forts at Kharmar and Balduba. In the latter 300 Turks were killed. The garrison fled to Masmer and begged the sheiks to help recapture Balduba. The sheiks refused and were taken to Saana and imprisoned. The telegraph is constantly cut, and Sayyid, the pretender, burns the letters and presents which the sultan sends.

GREAT BRITAIN'S ACTION.

Belief that the Powers Have Quarreled Among Themselves.

Constantinople, via Sofia, Nov. 30.—The ordering back to Salonica Bay of the British gunboat Dryad, which had been ordered up to the Dardanelles at the request of the British Ambassador, Sir Philip Currie, in anticipation of the promised granting of the firmans by the Sultan for war ships to pass through, is officially explained on the ground that the proposed action would do more harm than good by inflaming the fanaticism of the Turks against foreigners on account of the supposed affront to the Sultan of what would have amounted to a naval demonstration against Constantinople. The effect of the abandonment of its purpose by Great Britain on the situation in Turkey is awaited with anxiety and great interest. Undoubtedly one effect of the ordering back of the Dryad to Salonica is that the belief in the oft-alleged concert of the powers in their attitude toward Turkey is wanting. Whether Great Britain is influenced by the alleged danger to foreigners from fanatic Turks which would ensue upon the proposed demonstration, or whether she has learned to doubt the approval of her action which might be accorded by the other powers, is, therefore, a question which is discussed on both sides.

United States Minister A. W. Terrell has received from Aintab, on the southern slopes of Mount Taurus, a dispatch which states that the American missionaries there are safe and were unharmed in the recent massacre, and have not required the services of special guards.

Reports of a fanatical outbreak in Caesarea have created anxiety as to the safety of the American mission there, and Minister Terrell has wired for an inquiry, to which answer is still awaited. The non-arrival of private letters from Karpoot and Sivas also has a disquieting effect.

It is stated that the American Admiral at Smyrna recently asked permission to bring an ironclad here to visit the Sultan, but permission was refused.

FIRE ON A BRITISH SHIP.

Turkey Seems to Be Losing Respect for the Union Jack.

Odessa, Dec. 2.—Many British captains are complaining of the provocative attitude of the Turks in the Dardanelles. Captain Noble of the steamship Loch Rannoch says that a few days ago he arrived at Chanakin, in the Dardanelles, four minutes after sundown. Two blank shots, one from each shore, were fired at the Loch Rannoch. Thinking that this was done in the course of military maneuvers, Captain Noble paid no attention, when three shells were fired, one of them coming within a yard of Captain Noble's head. He reversed his engines and signaled. He was so astonished that he thought war had been declared between Great Britain and Turkey, as usually a time margin is allowed at sundown. The head of the Dardanelles is covered with torpedoes, to the great anxiety of merchantmen. One exploded recently and nearly wrecked a French vessel.

Cisterns Ruined by an Earthquake.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 2.—Since the recent rains it has been found that the cisterns in different parts of the Ohio valley no longer hold water. The cisterns have been dry for months, and the general theory is that the cement was cracked by the earthquake that was so distinctly felt throughout the Ohio valley on Oct. 31.

BIG FIRE AT SPARTA TODAY.

The High School Totally Destroyed, Entailing a Loss of $35,000.

Sparta, Wis., Dec. 2—[Special]—Sparta high school building was burned this morning. The loss was total and will reach $35,000. Insurance $15,000.

COLD WAVE COMING TONIGHT.

1 p. m....16 above
Max.....16 above
Min.....13 above
Wind north.

MOST SNOW FELL NORTH OF HERE

Fall Did Not Bother Trains Much, Although One Passenger Was Late.

Yesterday's snow storm was more noticeable north of the city than in this immediate vicinity. The Milwaukee train on the St. Paul road was late this morning and Engineer Ellis reports running through plenty of snow drifts between Milton and Whitewater. In some places it had drifted five and six feet high, and the front of his engine was covered from pilot to headlight.

A TRIPLE MURDERER DEFIES THE POSSE

BLOODY AFFAIR DOWN IN "OLD KAINTUCK."

Orville Eals, Who Killed Three People Shot by the Sheriff—Lynching in Dooly County, Georgia—Hayward's Time is Short—Train Wrecker's Caught—Other Crimes.

Cyanthiana, Ky., Dec. 2.—At Brownsingsville, a town in one of the most isolated parts of Bracken county, Tuesday, Mrs. Orville Eals deserted her husband and fled with John Fields. The deserted husband pursued and forced her to return. Then he started in pursuit of Fields, and, overtaking him, he shot him to death. Eals then barricaded his home and defied the authorities. The house was surrounded by a posses who lay in wait until Friday morning, when it was determined to take him.

When a combined attack was made and entrance gained it was found that both husband and wife had fled and no trace of them could be found until Saturday morning. They were located in a deserted cabin several miles away. Another posse was organized and another vigil began, a stronger one than the previous one, as Eals was heavily armed, and each time one of the posse exposed himself the "ping" of a rifle warned them that Eals was determined not to be taken alive.

Yesterday morning another attack was made and an entrance effected, after a man named McComas, one of the posse, had been shot dead and two others slightly wounded. Entrance to the cabin was gained by using a heavy timber as a battering ram. When the door was burst open Eals made an attempt to rush out, but was riddled with bullets.

On entering the house a horrible sight met their gaze. In one corner of the room lay the dead and horribly mutilated body of Mrs. Eals, the head being almost severed from the body and the face and body terribly cut. A bloody hatchet was found lying close by.

McComas was one of the most highly respected men in the county. The other two wounded men are not in a critical condition. This was the third time Mrs. Eals had left her husband. Once before she left with her brother-in-law.

Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 2.—There is much mystery about a supposed double lynching in Dooly county. One officer of the court, W. T. Sangster, went into the country near Unadilla to serve a warrant on Tony Sutton, who is regarded as a desperado. He resisted arrest and a fight followed and Sangster was killed. Tony fled. His father and elder brother were arrested, but were liberated on condition that they would give Tony up. They did this. Officers started with the prisoner to Unadilla for a trial. A mob took him from them and since then no trace of Sutton can be found. Harry Sutton, his youngest brother, has also disappeared, and it is feared he has been lynched. Governor Atkinson is doing all in his power to capture the lynchers.

Hayward's Time on Earth Is Short.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 2.—While no date has been set for the execution of Harry Hayward, it is safe to say that Friday, Dec. 13, will be his last day on earth. The ten days in which a final appeal could have been taken have expired and the governor will not interfere. Hayward appreciates that his time is short, yet he does not give himself any uneasiness so far as religious questions are concerned. He talks as freely as he has talked at any time since his incarceration and whenever there is a chance to laugh and appear happy, he improves it. Hayward pursues his enemies with a malignity that will end only with his life. Last night he said that if he had $1,000,000 he would so invest it that every cent would be spent in persecuting his brother Adry.

DEATH'S CALL CAME TO J. C. METCALF

WELL KNOWN INSURANCE MAN IS SUMMONED HOME.

His Demise Occured at His Home at 9:20 O'clock Saturday Evening and Closed a Busy and Useful Life—Illness Had Been a Long One—Sketch of His Career.

John C. Metcalf died at his home, 155 Washington street, at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night, after a long and painful illness, aged seventy years. For some time past, it has been known that he could not long hold out against the grim destroyer. and when the end came he sank into peaceful rest that was more like sleep than death.

Mr. Metcalf was an old resident of this city, and was a man universally loved and respected. The Portrait and Biographical Album of Rock County give the following sketch of his life:

"John C. Metcalf was born near Oxford, Pa., January 16, 1825. His father was of English descent and his mother of Irish parentage. When eight years of age John went to Belmont, Ohio, where he attended the public schools and later entered Hopewell Academy of Chester county, as a student, and graduated in the class of 1849. His education was obtained under difficulties that would have discouraged a lad possessed of less spirit and ambition. He was obliged to earn the money to start on, and then, as he progressed, had to work at teaching and often at the hardest manual labor in order to procure means to defray his expenses at the academy.

Worked His Way Through College.

During vacations when other students were enjoying their hours of leisure with family and friends he was working as a common laborer, carrying a hod for bricklayers. In the academy he taught penmanship and mathematics to help pay his way and then had to study all the harder to keep pace with his classes. On completing his schooling he determined to qualify himself for the medical profession and again resorted to school teaching to provide the means.

On June 3d, 1851, he was married to Miss Julietta M. Massoletta, whose father, an Italian, was then chief clerk in the navy yard at Washington, D. C. While pursuing his medical studies Mr. Metcalf received the tempting offer of a clerkship in the Interior Department at Washington, which he accepted and remained in that city from 1851 to 1853 inclusive. He then removed to Muskingum county, Ohio, settling near Zanesville, where he was engaged in farming for three years He came to Wisconsin in the employ of railroad contractors. In 1861 he enlisted for the late war and was commissioned second lieutenant Co. M, 2d Regiment, Wisconsin Cavalry. He was promoted to quartermaster of his regiment and served until April, 1863, when he was mustered out on account of physical disability. His military service was principally rendered in the states of Missouri, Arkansas and Mississippi.

His Business Career.

Soon after his return from the war, having practically recovered his health, Mr. Metcalf accepted a position in the Paymaster General's office at Washington, which he held until March, 1864, when he was offered and accepted the position of chief book-keeper in the First National bank of Janesville. This position he filled for nineteen years. He then resigned to accept the appointment as cashier in the Merchants' and Mechanics' Savings bank of this city, where he spent one year. He was next engaged in the leaf tobacco business with H. B. Delong and subsequently was in the same line with L. B. Carle. In 1886 he engaged in the general insurance business, which he continued until he was compelled to give up active business pursuits by reason of failing health.

"In political sentiments Mr. Metcalf was a republican and was called upon to fill various other positions of honor and trust. He served four years as a member of the common council, eight years as a member of the county board of supervisors and was member of the last named body for three years. In April, 1887, he was elected a member of the board of education and served as clerk.

Political and Social Life.

"In early life he was a whig and cast his first vote for President Taylor. He also voted in 1856 for John C. Fremont, the first presidential candidate of the republican party. Deceased was a member of Western Star Lodge No. 14, A. F. and A. M.; Janesville Chapter No. 5, R. A. M.; Janesville Commandery No. 2, K. T. He was a member of the Odd Fellows since 1852 and also belonged to W. H. Sargent Post No. 20, G. A.R. He was a prominent member of Trinity Episcopal church, being confirmed in 1858. He was treasurer and junior warden of that church between thirty and forty years. In all the various public positions to which he was called he proved faithful to every duty and true to every obligation. Methodical and exact by habit and conscientiously earnest in all his undertakings, he proved himself a competent business man and public officer. As a citizen he stood deservedly high in the esteem of all who knew him. His life was a busy one and no obstacle ever made him swerve from the path of duty or abandon the end in view."

The funeral will be held from Trinity church at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Any friends desiring to take a last leave can call at the house between 10 and 12 o'clock tomorrow.

Alice Thompson Warner.

Alice Thompson Warner died of dropsy and pleuro-pneumonia on the the evening of Nov. 20 at 7 o'clock, at her home in Eden, South Dakota. She was born in the town of Janesville, Rock county, Wis., Oct. 30, 1846. She was the youngest daughter of L. D. and Betsy Thompson, who were among the early settlers of Rock county. In March, 1854, she removed with her parents to the town of Center. She was united in marriage to Joseph A. Warner Jan. 1, 1868. In May, 1871, she removed to Eden, S. D., where she has since resided. She leaves beside her husband, two daughters and two sons, Mrs. H. V. Zachery of Defiance, Iowa; Racine, Arthur and Loren, also one sister, Mrs. Mrs. Mary T. Fockler, of Janesville, Wis., and one brother, O. L. Thompson of Eden, South Dakota, all of whom were with her during her last hours and received her parting benediction. She was a patient sufferer for many months and died in the hope of a blessed immortality. Her funeral was held from the Congregational church at Hudson, on the afternoon of November 22. The sermon was by Rev. George S. Evans, pastor of the Congregational church of which she was a loved and honored member, from Rev. 14-13, "Blessed are the Dead Who Die in The Lord From Henceforth, Yea, Saith The Spirit That They May Rest From Their Labors, and Their Works do Follow Them."

N. W. Wilcox.

N. W. Wilcox who has made Rock county his home since 1845, passed away peacefully Sunnay night at 10 o'clock. He was confined to his bed but three days the weight of eighty-seven years having sapped his powers of resistance.

Mr. Wilcox was born in New Hampshire but grew to manhood and was married in Connecticut and came from there to the west. For sixteen years he lived in Illinois then removed to Harmony in this county. Both he and his wife were prominent in the Methodist church and did good work in the society at Milton. His wife passed away five years ago leaving him to make his home with his son, A. E. Wilcox. At the home A. E. Wilcox the funeral will be held and the burial will be in Roscoe, Ill.

INGALLS, THE FIERY WAS VERY PEACEFUL

DISAPPOINTED THOSE WHO WANTED TO SMELL BLOOD.

"Problems of Our Second Century" a Broad Enough Theme, However, to Bring Out New Phases of the Distinguished Kansan's Character—Some of His Pithy Declarations.

There could be no disappointment after so thoughtful, timely and powerful an adress as that of John J. Ingalls Saturday night and yet few went away fully satisfied.

The eloquent Kansan presented the problems of the day with a clearness that proved him student and statesman. He charmed by his grace of manner and conquered by his wonderful diction and clearness of thought.

And yet there were those among his hearers who looked for something different. They thought of him as the terror of foes and the wonder of friends; the man whose tongue cut like a whip, whosewords stung like thongs of a cat-o'-nine-tails. They forgot that the lecture platform gives no excuse for the launching of invective—that the law of the rostrum is good will to all.

There was no lack of epigram.

"Inventions that have made farming in the west almost a sedentary occupation" was his reference to improvments in agricultural machinery.

Other characteristic utterances were:

"A middle aged man today has lived longer than did Methuselah in all his stagnant centuries."

"Any man who has wantonly eaten the bread of mendicancy has by that act disqualified himself for the franchise of liberty as we understand it."

"There is work enough and occupation enough on this continent for the men who have a right to be here."

"What is the use of having a tariff on the product and free trade in men?"

"The great difference in men is in their ability to learn what the world wants done, and doing it."

A man if he is made at all makes himself."

"Politicians are all cowards."

The speakers objection to trusts was that they interfered with the liberty of man to choose his own pursuit. Except for that he thought they worked little harm.

"Thanks to the Standard Oil Co.," he declared, "it is cheaper to illuminate with kerosene oil today than with daylight, when you consider the cost of keeping your windows clean."

THEATRICAL SPECIALS RUN FAST

C. & N. W. Gets the Companies Over the Ground at a Rapid Rate.

The Northwestern Co. seems to be trying to establish a new record in running special trains.

Primrose & West's minstrels arrived in the city yesterdry morning from Minneapolis on a special and were in a hurry to get to Chicago. After a change of engines here the "special" left Janesville at 10:25 in charge of Conductor Brown and Engineer "Jack" Tripp. They had instructions to "get there" and although they were delayed at Harvard and several Chicago suburbs they arrived in that city at 12:20 making 91 miles in one hour and fifty five minutes. Engineer Tripp is satisfied that with a clear track he could have made it in one hundred minutes.

The Melba Concert Company Combany which left the city at 9:20 Saturday morning in charge of Engineer Heath and Conductor York arrived in Chicago at 11:55 which included a stop of twenty minutes at Harvard for breakfast.

MRS. VOODRE'S REMAINS SHIPPED

Body of the Woman Who Was Killed Sent to Springfield, Minn.

The remains of Mrs. Cynthia Voodre who was killed by jumping from a train, were shipped on "the vestibule" last evening to Springfield, Minn., where her son, G. P. Voodre resides. Prior to the arrival of the train the little grandson, Lawrence, was kindly looked after by Chief Acheson. During his stay in the city he was tenderly cared for by Mrs. Kenyon at the European Hotel and when the train arrived he was taken in charge by the conductor. His only belongings were the small satchel which still contained the trunk check, two tickets, four small glasses and six small bottles labeled "morphine." The $18 in money which was found on Mrs. Voodre's person was forwarded to relatives at Springfield by Chief Acheson, for it was deemed unsafe to send it with the boy.

Home Decoration.

"How things have changed since you and I were young, Becky. The old parlor, shut up tight year after year, and only used on state occasions; in it the set of hair-cloth-covered furniture, the what-not in the corner, the old lion rug, the vase on the staid old mantle, two or three quaint oil paintings, the large figured Brussels carpet and a precious little sunlight." How strange the contrast—the present and the past—how the woman of today is helped to make home beautiful.

A Few Hints : :

Fancy draperies, scores of novelties, beautiful Silkolines, Pongee lined Draperies, Chinese high novelties, large figured Sateens in rich colorings, Cretonnes, the new Delf effect (blue and white Cotton Drapery, scroll design,) Novelty Burlaps, and many more.

Sash Curtains : :

much the most here. 50 pieces of colored Muslins—exquisite creations, 50 pieces of White Muslius, the newest things in figured, dotted embroidered, &c ; 25 pieces of White and Ecru Nets; very desirable Irish Point styles in White and Ecru, and more.

Other Things : :

Largest line of Felt—many fancy art designs—hundreds of Pillow Tops—great variety; the new heavy twisted Cotton Cords, any combination, for finishing the edges of sofa pillows; Furniture Gimps—50 styles; Spreads, all sizes, colors and prices—50c to $10.00; Furnitnre and Couch Coverings—an immense stock—50c to $5,00; Laundry Bags—new ideas; China Silks—a strong line—every shade in plain, and 100 styles in figured Chinas including the new Persians; Dresser Covers—entirely new things in lace and fancy open work Muslin—not found elsewhere; Stamped Linens—the choicest collection, Filo Silk and Wash Twist—the Cutter make are the very best, never had a complaint,

THE OVERFLOW OF LOCAL NEWS.

THE NEWS OF ROCK COUNTY.

News of Center.

Center, Dec. 2.—The chicken pie social and oyster supper at Footville hall was attended by a number from this place who report a good time and an abundance of good things. Mr. Carlson, who has charge of the creamery here, is now well established and is making a first class article. Fred Vankirk is devoting his entire time now to his mercantile establishment and is prepared to do better by his customers than ever before. Dick Best has moved to Johnson's Creek where he will run a creamery. Rev. Spencer, the new divine, has moved to the parsonage. Winter has set in in earnest, there being an abundance of snow on the ground for sleighing. Mr. Sprague, the musical wonder, gave a fine entertainment at the church on Tuesday evening. The entertainment was first-class in every respect and was worthy of a crowded house. Should he consent to repeat his musicale here he will be greeted by a full house. Farmers are now at leisure waiting for a soft spell so that they can get down to the '95 crop of tobacco. Many fields of shock corn yet unhusked can be noticed while riding through the country.

South Clinton Events

South Clinton, Dec. 2—Mrs. Thompson was buried from the home of Mrs. Newhouse. She died after a long and painful illness. Mr. Westby has been ill. Some of our people took in the Sunday School convention at Clinton. Mrs. E. L. Benedict had charge of the program at the last missionary meeting of the Congregational church. Our Beloit delegation of academy boys have had their work very seriously interfered with by the measles. Clarence Dresser has so far recovered from the measles that he was able to come home on Saturday of last week, having been out of school two weeks. Mrs. E. S. Westby is home. J. H. Soper and wife were callers in this neighborhood not long ago. Edwin Dresser has been at home for some days very sick with the measles. Hattie Bellinger has been home for a few days. Prayer meeting at Mrs. Jacket's Friday evening. Irwin Bates has been caring for a very sick horse.

The News of South Turtle

South Turtle, Dec. 2—Mr. and Mrs. Ondale have a baby girl. Sidney Wright has had a stroke of paralysis. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Carpenter, parents of Mrs. Alice Hammond, have gone to California for the winter. George Adams has sold his farm to Mr. Moore and will move to Manchester, Ill. Frank Crockett is home because of the measles. Rev. Mr. Stubbert spoke in the Murray school house Sunday afternoon of last week. Parley Isham has returned from his trip, and reports an enjoyable time. Mrs. Warren Bates and sister are stopping at Mr. Ondell's. There was a little company at James Flagg's on Thanksgiving night. Mr. and Mrs. Isham entertained friends Thanksgiving. Henry Smith's new barn makes quite a show.

Rock River News Notes.

Rock River, Dec. 2—The River school has rented a melodien of E. D. Bliss for the winter term. C. D. Balch has purchased a new team of Anson Rose. Mr. and Mrs. Charley Garthewait, of Milton Junction, took dinner at N. M. Rose's Thanksgiving day. Several from Milton attended the Thanksgiving supper at Mr. and Mrs. Stennett Pierce's. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Williams and Mrs. Warren Thorpe and families spent Thanksgiving day at Ezra Bingham's at Koshkonong. Quite a number from this place attended the Seventh-Day Baptist quarterly meeting at Milton Junction last Sabbath day and Sunday. Jennie Moore, of Glendon, Minn., is spending the winter with her grandmother, Mrs. Silas Crandall. The Sabbath school here have decided to have an entertainment Christmas eve.

Clergymen's Half Fare Permits.

For the information of clergymen and other religious offices entitled to travel on half fare permits, a synopsis of ruling for 1896 is herewith given: The application classifies (a) (b) (c) (d), showing those persons entitled to annual and those to only trip permits. The applicant fills in opposite his class; obtains the indorsement of local agent and then forwards application with fifty cents in check, draft, postal or delivers order to B. D. Caldwell, chairman Western Passenger Association, Chicago, Ill.

The annual permit covers 37 miles of railway in western states and is a valuable bit of cardboard. The trip permit covers only between certain points and is limited to 30 days. The signature of one agent at a point where there are several railways will suffice for all. Blanks can be obtained at the depot now and may be fully endorsed and sent in at once for permits for 1896.

"HUMAN HEARTS" A FINE PLAY

It Deals With Simple Honest People Who Make Arkansas Their Home.

"Human hearts, which will be seen at the Myers' Grand tomorrow evening, is a play out of the ordinary. It has to do with the people of Arkansas, and the principal scenes are laid in Little Rock. A brave, honest, handsome country blacksmith is the hero, while the villians of the play

HOG CHOLERA IS STILL RAGING

Many Rock County Herds Are Still Being Thinned Out

Hog cholera has not yet ceased to rage in Rock county and a number of farmers who were in the city today were of the opinion that it had not yet begun to "let up." Edward Paul who resides near the city, has just four hogs which remind him of the big herd he owned, while George Gower, one of the counties well known formers, reports having lost forty-two head. The remaining twenty-two he disposed of at two cents a pound and was glad to get rid of them at that price. Warren Andrews who resides in the town of Center, after losing a number of porkers, sold the remaining lot for one cent a pound.

SAYS SNOW BALLING MUST STOP

Chief Acheson Issues an Edict Against Filling the Air With Chunks.

The person who managed to walk the length of Milwaukee street without being struck with a snow ball was considered in luck yesterday, but in the future it will be different. Chief Acheson has his eye on a number of boys who have been too free with the use of the beautiful, and the next young man caught throwing snow in the business streets will become either acquainted with the "hickory uniform" or Judge Phelps.

MUST PAY STORAGE ON BAGGAGE

The Railroads Adopt a New Rule That Took Effect Yesterday

A new rule went into effect yesterday on both the C. & N. W. and the C., M. & St. P. roads. It refers to the storage of baggage in local baggage rooms. In the future on all baggage that remains over twenty-four hours, twenty-five cents will be charged for the second twenty-four hours or fraction thereof, and not less than ten cents for each succeeding twenty-four hours or fraction.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

MONTGOMERY.

1547—Cortes (Hernando), conqueror of Mexico, died; born 1485.

1552—St. Francis Xavier, apostle to the Indies, who baptized over 1,000,000 converts, died in China; born 1506.

1736—General Richard Montgomery, Irish-American patriot, born; killed at the storming of Quebec 1775.

1805—Battle of Austerlitz.

1825—Dom Pedro, second and last emperor of Brazil, born in Rio Janeiro; died in exile at Faris 1891. Pedro II became emperor in 1841, when he was about 16 years old; his father abdicated in his favor, declaring the youth of age. In his early years Dom Pedro was noted for his attention to useful arts. While liberal and progressive, and acting within the bounds of a constitutional sovereign, he virtually held the reins of government in his own hands. He led in the movement which abolished slavery in 1866. By a bloodless revolution in 1889 he was deposed and sent into exile after ruling Brazil for 47 years.

1833—Pauline Cushman, a former actress, who served in the Union army in the west as a scout and spy, died in San Francisco; born in New Orleans of Spanish parents in 1833.

JOHN J. INGALLS, OF KANSAS.

A man of invective is John J. Ingalls.

Biting, blistering epigram points his tongue.

The "Kansas Wasp," they call him in Washington.

The title hardly suggests good nature; and in truth Ingalls good natured, is not Ingalls at his best.

Hence the lecture platform cramps him.

The "popular lecturer" must be at peace with the world." If he rebuke its foibles he must do so without venom. Though he be filled with righteous wrath he must nurse that wrath in his bosom, not tell it to unwilling audiences.

Impose these conditions on vitriolic John J. Ingalls. You rob him of the elements that built his fame.

The "problems of our second century" are pressing but they cannot bring out the fierce rapier play, the lightning thrust and parry that marked his debates with Voorhees and Blackburn.

He is not a man for lectures, this epigrammatic Kansan. He needs the smell of blood in his nostrils to make him do his best.

LITTLE HEAVY WORK.

Ordinarily in the second congress of a presidential term parties pass most of their time in "pointing with pride" to what they did in the first congress or in some remote one and in dodging current issues. These tasks are likely to consume most of the time of the congress which meets this week. The long session of the second congress is generally still in progress when the national conventions meet and the presidential campaign begins. This is a situation ideally well calculated to make the politicians on both sides shuffle and straddle.

Moreover, the silver problem is solved, the tariff question will hardly be reopened by the party which has just dealt with it, and greenback retirement, however wise that would be as a matter of business policy, will excite no enthusiasm on any side. This congress will be forced to create more revenue, but it will dodge other issue, if it can, and aside from the revenue question it is likely to do very little important work beyond the routine business of keeping the wheels of government in motion.

COMING TO THE LIGHT.

Republicon reorganization in Virginia is proceeding vigorously. This is well. All the old border slave states are coming back to the republican party, and Virginia cannot afford to lag behind. Fifteen years ago the chances were that Virginia would be the first of the southern states to enter the republican column, but the feuds among her republican leaders denied her that distinction. Her political rehabilitation in 1896, however, is probable. Not many states outside of the Gulf tier will be left to the democrats next year.

The Spanish royal decree making American syndicates engaged in working Cuban mines free of taxation for twenty years, would have been worth more had it been accompanied by a written guarantee that Spain will retain the right to say who shall and who shall not be taxed in Cuba, for even one-tenth of that period.

Republicans agree with Secretary Carlisle that all political meanings should be made clear; that's why they have pulled the "sound money" mantle off the wild cat state bank currency purpose of Messrs. Cleveland and Carlisle.

Of the one hundred and four democrats of the new house fifty-six are free silver men and seven are doubtful. At least that was their status when elected.

Instead of administration punishing Speaker Crisp and the other silver democrats in the house it may find itself in the house being punished by them.

Large bodies move slowly. That may account for Mr. Cleveland's silence on the third term question he hasn't got around to it yet.

New York may not send Hon. Theodore Roosevelt to the United States senate but a worse senator might easily be found.

Let's see; didn't the Spanish minister say the Cuban revolt would be put down before congress met?

Mr. Reed has given up his mustache, but his backbone is still in business at the old stand.

Many Women Will Recognize It.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

"Oh, I am so nervous! No one ever suffered as I do! There isn't a well inch in my whole body! I honestly think my lungs are diseased, my chest pains me so; but I've no cough. I'm so weak at my stomach, and have indigestion horribly. Then I have palpitation, and my heart hurts me. How I am losing flesh! and this headache nearly kills me; and the backache—Heavens! I had hysterics yesterday. There is a weight in the lower part of my bowels, bearing down all the time; and there are pains in my groins and thighs. I can't sleep, walk, or sit. I'm diseased all over. The doctor? Oh! he tells me to keep quiet. Such mockery!

Inflammatory and ulcerative conditions at the neck of the womb can produce all the above symptoms in the same person. In fact, there is hardly a part of the body that can escape those sympathetic pains and aches.

No woman should allow herself to reach such a perfection of misery when there is positively no need of it.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound acts promptly and thoroughly in such cases; strengthens the muscles of the womb, heals all inflammation, and restores that unruly organ to its normal condition. Druggists are selling carloads of it. Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., will gladly and freely answer all letters asking for advice.

Mrs. E. Bishop, 787 Halsey Street, Brooklyn, N.Y., suffered all the above described horrors. Now she is well. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured her. Write her about it.

EMINENT TESTIMONY

Regarding the New Discovery for Curing Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

Dr. Hartzman, who has made many tests of the new dyspepsia cure, is very enthusiastic in his praise of this excellent preparation. It is not a secret patent medicine, but is composed of pure pepsin, bismuth, fruit salts and vegetable essences, made into pleasant tasting tablets or lozenges and sold by druggists at 50 Cents per package, under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Dr. Hartzman states that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure dyspepsia and weak stomachs, because they possess the peculiar power of digesting whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach. They do not act on the bowels like cathartics, but act entirely on the food, digesting it thoroughly and quickly, giving the stomach a chance to rest and recover its natural strength, which it invariably will do after a course of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. If your druggist hasn't them in stock ask him to order a small quantity from his wholesaler.

MUST HAVE ROOM TO HANDLE CARS

C. & N. W. May Have to Pull up Stakes In Janesville.

MOVE WOULD REDUCE OUR POPULATION 2,000 PEOPLE.

Yards Will Only Accommodate 300 or 400 Cars, Where Now They are Often Compelled to Handle From 1800 to 2000 in That Limited Space Must Have More Room or Alter the Division Ends—What Can be Done.

Will the C. & N. W. road be compelled to "pull up stakes" in Janesville or can arrangements be made whereby they can get sufficient yard room in this city?

A man who knows what he is talking about today said that is is "one or the other."

The question is of great importance, for if the company cannot make suitable arrangements they will, in all probability be compelled to change the end of this division, thus causing the removal of 1,500 or 2,000 people from this city.

For a long time the company has been greatly in need of more yard room. The local yards will now accommodate between 300 and 400 cars, but for some time past they have been compelled to handle between 1,800 and 2,000 cars in this limited space. This has caused no end of trouble. For hours long freight trains have been compelled to wait for a chance to get into the yards, while the sidetracks at Clinton, Shopiere, Milton and Fort Atkinson have been filled with trains that sometimes had to wait half a day. This has caused great annoyance and expense, and the company must make some arrangements to do away with it in the future.

From Chicago to Harvard the distance is 63 miles; from Harvard to Janesville is 28 miles; from Harvard to Oshkosh is 131 miles; from Oshkosh to Green Bay is 45 miles; from Janesville to Green Bay is 151 miles, and from Janesville to Madison is 40 miles. The officials have been up from Chicago on several occasions to look over the ground, and unless they can secure ground for increased yard room, they will probably be compelled to make one division from Chicago to Harvard and return; another from Harvard to Oshkosh; another from Oshkosh to Green Bay and return, and another from Harvard to Madison or Baraboo. This would leave this city out in the cold and would cause the removal from the city of 75 or 100 families, which with the floating population would probably mean a loss to Janesville of some 2,000 people. The officials claim that there is only one way by which they can get around this difficulty. If they could have that part of North street which is now open—from the round house to Gold street—they could enlarge the yards sufficiently to accommodate the necessary trackage, as they have sufficient land if this street was closed, to extend the yards considerably.

What the outcome will be is not yet known, but Janesville cannot afford to lose 2,000 people, so we will hope for the best.

ROTH DAMAGE CASE ON TRIAL

Beloit Man Seeks Damages For the Injury To His Son.

Judge Bennett and a jury consisting of John Murray, Will Cleland, L. S. Moseley, John Busfield, John Burgess, Edgar Smith, Jacob Brady, Frank Stevens, R. P. Young, Martin Delaney, George Sherwood and Thomas Morrissey are now hearing the case of Anton Roth versus the S. E. Barrett Manufacturing Company of Beloit. Roth, who is a minor, brings suit through Martin Roth, his father, for $20,000 damages for the loss of an arm while in the employ of the defendant. The court and jury went to Beloit Saturday to inspect the premises. Fethers, Jeffris & Fifield appear for the plaintiff and C. H. Van Alstine for the defendant.

The jury in the case of Nancy Sayles against the C. & N. W. Company and the Farmers Mutual insurance company against the same company, the jury awarded $157.90 and $6.36 interest to Mrs. Sayles, and $73.23 cents to the insurance company. Richmond & Smith appeared for the plaintiff and Ruger & Norcross for the defendant in the case of the insurance company, and Smith, Pierce & Dibble for the plaintiff and Winkler, Flanders, Smith, Bottum & Vilas for the defennant in Mrs. Sayles case.

The case was continued for the term this afternoon on the defendent's motion, President Barrett being in New York.

E. H. AIRIS GOT RICH IN THE FAR WEST

FORMER ROCK COUNTY MAN NOW HAS $450,000.

He Was Born and Raised on a Farm Near Mount Zion but Went West Some Time Ago and Recently Sold His Share in a Gold Mine for That Amount.

When E. H. Airis worked on a farm near Mount Zion a few years ago, the thought that he would some day be the possessor of $450,000 in legal tender, would probably have given him heart failure.

But he can stand it now.

Mr. Airis, who was born and raised near Mount Zion, went to Nebraska some years ago. He speculated in grain mostly, but finally fell in with a syndicate of men from Fremont, Neb., who after prospecting through the mining region, bought what is known as the "Mercury gold mine," which now proves to be the second richest mine in that section. A Mr. De Lamar has secured an option on the mine, which does not expire until Jan. 10 next for an eastern syndicate. The price agreed upon is $1,500,000 which will give Hon. John Deru, E. H. Airis and John Hemrisch all of Fremont $450,000 each while a number of other citizens in that locality will have small fortunes. Mr. Airis' brother, John Airis, now resides on the old homestead. The lucky man was once engaged in the wind mill business in this city with J. E. Gleason now of La Prairie and is well and widely known throughout the county. Many friends will congratulate him on his good luck, as $450,000 is not made every day in the year, even in Nebraska.

ALL SOULS, The People's Church
Devoted to the Betterment of Our City.

Abraham Lincoln said, "If the time ever comes when there is a church organized on the simple basis of love to God and love to man, I shall be glad to join that Church." (You will find this statement in "Carpenter's Six Months at the White House.")

Abraham Lincoln is gone. The Church he longed to see is here. Its doors stand open to every soul of man. The plain gospel of love to God and love to man is all we insist upon. "He that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, can not love God whom he hath not seen. "By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples IF YE HAVE LOVE ONE TO ANOTHER."

When every man in Janesville is a friend to every other man, our work as a church will be complete.

Her Voluntary Act.

"You sign this deed of your own free will, do you, madam?" asked the notary public.

"What do you mean by that?" demanded the large, florid-faced woman.

"I mean there has been no compulsion on the part of your husband, has there?"

"Him?" she ejaculated, turning to look at the meek little man sitting behind her. "I'd like to see him try to compulse me!"—Chicago Tribune.

A Misunderstanding.

Suitor—Beg pardon for interrupting, but I—er—have just come—er—that is, I have just been speaking to your daughter, and she referred me to you.

Old Gentleman—Gee crickets! I wonder if that girl thinks I am made of money? You are about the 40th bill-collector she has sent to me to-day. If she doesn't marry pretty soon, I'll be bankrupt.—N. Y. Weekly.

How He Squared Things.

When Satan beheld with an angry frown,
The spread of the bicycle boom,
And how it was checking the growth of sin,
His soul was immersed in gloom.
But he rallied at once, and he jollied the girls
And got them all bicycle mad;
And then with a grin that was devilish quite
He invented the bloomer fad.

HOLY SMOKE!

WHAT'S IN THE WIND NOW?

Nothing but fun and plenty of everything to make my customers happy. On Saturday Nov, 28, 1895, I will give every person that purchases $5 worth of goods out of the store

A number on two gold watches!

that they will have a chance to win the day before Christmas; and two more will be given away Friday, Dec. 31. And

About Saturday, Dec. 7th

I will set at Society Hall

A lunch of oysters and coffee!

until Jan. 6, 1896, to every man, woman or child that make a purchase of five dollars and a ticket on the watch, and if they don't get the Christmas watch you may get one on New Year's morning to make themselves happy. There will be no humbug about the thing. The person that draws the number will get the watch as I shall have Marshal Acheson and J. W. Hogan and Joe Bear to draw the numbers. If you don't draw the watch you will get a good meal of Oysters and Coffee. If one person trades to the amount of $10 they will have two tickets; $20, four tickets, and Oysters on every $5 00 worth purchased out of the store. Come and try your luck and you will not go home hungry, and four people out of the lot will have gold watches for the balance of their lives if taken care of, Goods will be sold lower than any of the "Scab" Clothing stocks in town. Everything to pick from that goes to make a man look well and then his wife will feel proud of him and he will feel better himself. Our Clothing is Union made and every garment in Union shops and above gsound; no sweat shop goods in our store; every thing is all right and a yard wide.

THE KANGAROO.

He Is a Success in Many Ways, but Does Not Show Off in Running Down Hill.

Leather made from the skin of the kangaroo is one of the new products in the leather line. It is soft, strong, and the light grades are particularly well adapted for light summer shoes and for shoe tops, while the heavier grades will bear more usage than any other leather finished on the grain side. The light skins are made into the finest brilliant glazed kid and in dull finish for ladies' fine shoes, and the heavy ones are finished for men's fine work. Much of it is crimped and sold for tongue boots. Shoe laces of good qualities are also made of it. The skin of the kangaroo has a wonderfully muscular fibre, which contributes largely to the strength of the animal, enabling the females to carry their young in their pouch until old enough to take care of themselves, and aiding the kangaroo in his long leaps when in motion. The animal is a native of Australia and adjacent islands. It is a distinct species, and has no counterpart in other countries. There are a great number of families, some scarcely larger than a rat, others of almost gigantic size. The giant kangaroo (Macropus major), the family which furnishes the most valuable skins, was discovered by Captain Cook about a century ago, at which time it attracted much attention among naturalists. The natives of Australia call the old males "booma," and are slow to attack them. The "booma" has paws as large as those of a mastiff, though of different shape. His feet are his weapons, and when attacked he is a dangerous antagonist. When raised to his full height his hind legs and tail form a tripod, upon which his body rests, carrying his head as high as that of a man on horseback. The kangaroo lives upon vegetable food, and roams over the plains of Australia in large flocks. Its teeth are so constructed that it can feed upon roots and live upon barren plains, where other animals would starve, and to its destruction of roots is attributed the sterile plains so common in Australia. When feeding a large male stands at his full height and acts as sentinel, while the balance of the flock lie on their sides and browse. At the slightest approach of danger the sentinel sounds the alarm, and in an instant all are erect upon their hind feet. They leap with their forepaws clasped close to their body, the tail stretched backward, while the powerful thigh muscles are caused suddenly to straighten to the joints, by which act the body flies through the air on a low curve. The ordinary jump is about nine feet, but thirty feet is often made at a leap. When pursued by hunters, and on level ground, or on an up-grade, they can outrun the fleetest dog, but down-grade they lose their balance and roll over. The flesh of the kangaroo furnishes excellent food, Kangaroo venison being considered a dainty dish, while the tail furnishes an excellent and nutritious soup.

Read the Death Roll

Which the bills of mortality of any large city may be fitly designated, and you will find that renal and vesical malidies, that is to say, those that affect the kidneys and bladder, have a remarkable prominence—we had almost said—preponderance. Bright's disease and diabetes in the chronic stare are rarely cured, and gravel, catarrh, of the bladder and enuresis, slay many. Yet at the cutset, when the trouble merely amounts to inactivity of the organs involved, the danger may be nullified by that thorough renal tonic and diuretic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which imparts the requisite amount of tone to the organs, without overexciting them, and the use of which is convenient, and involves no elaborate preparation. Dyspepsia, a usual concominant of renal complaints, and debility, which they invariably produce, are remedied by it. So also are constipation, malarial, rheumatic and nervous ailments.

Some timely advice.

With but a few short weeks between us and Christmas, it behooves the always tardy buyer to bestir herself and see if she can not for one year at least, be in time with gift purchasing, so that she does not have to, on Christmas eve, sadly pay for the besaggled remnants of what once were a goodly showing of charming novelties. Our store, even now, is overflowing with dainty, pretty things for presents, and many ladies, tremendously foresighted, have already begun their preparations for the holidays. Why don't you join in with the rest? A much better time to trade now than when we are rushed.

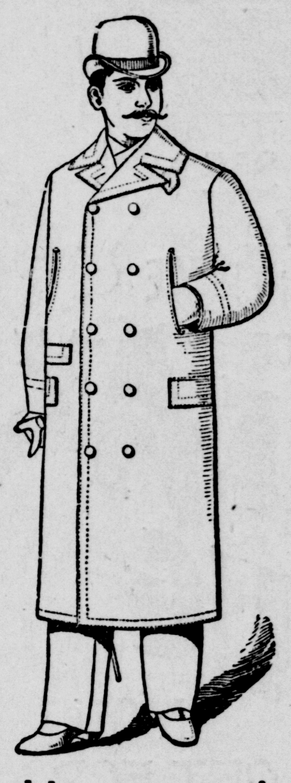

A few things that might do for Christmas : :

A handsome silk or satin Suspender - -	$1 00 to $2.50
A handsome Necktie, either in a puff, four'hand or teck. nicely boxed	75c to 1 50
Handsome Christmas Handkerckief Boxes - - -	50c
Handsome Neckscarfs, silk, satin and plushes -	1.00 to 3.00

Ask to see our Gloves, Mitts, Silk Umbrellas and Night Robes---everyone an appropriate present for a gentleman

E. J. SMITH, MANAGER.

Not a banquet but a bargain feast.

A spread to help your pocket book. You are invited, so are all your friends, to our sale of the finest line of Black Freize, wide collar, Storm Coats you have ever seen in any store in Janesville. We received yesterday from Browning, King & Co., of Minneapolis, 68 Freize Ulster Storm Coats with heavy cassimere linings, some with silk shoulders, made up to sell at $18, $20 and $22 and a few at $25, and we are ordered to sell them at $15 each, your choice. These coats are made and trimmed as well as those the merchant tailors get $30 and $35 for. On sale today, tomorrow and while they last. If you miss this opportunity you miss the chance of a life-time.

Equally as good a bargain is our heavy Scotch outing flannel Night Robes at $1.00. It would please any gentleman to receive one of these for
